“These four whites from Larry Cherubino are quite elegant wines, and excellent values. Tree Hugger Chardonnay is full bodied, dry, crisp, and finely flavored (peach, grapefruit, lime), with a long finish. The oaked Chardonnay is a bit richer, with light oak character, and a medium long finish, tasting of peach, vanilla, toast and lemon. The Riesling is dry, medium bodied, and delicately flavored (honeysuckle, peach, pear, apple), with firm acidity and a long finish. Lastly, the Sauvignon Blanc is supple and medium full bodied; a fruity style of Sauvignon (apple, peach, lime), with herbal overtones, and a crisp, long finish.”
