

Cherubino Sauvignon Blanc

Vintage 2010
RRP $35

TS: Larry Cherubino has two 2010 Pemberton Sauvignons and the bottle with his name on it is the pick. Zesty and honed with lime juice, fresh guava and lemon zest, offset by hazelnut cream oak notes and tremendous spice complexity. Razor edge acidity will allow it to grow and develop for the medium-term.

Grosset Off-Dry Watervale Riesling

Vintage 2010
RRP $32

TS: This barely off-dry wine has signature precision. Clean and tight, pristine and focused, with a steely acid backbone and rippling minerality that will benefit from time to soften and build complexity. A juxtaposition between Granny Smith, kaffir lime, acidity and subtle sweetness of lemon drops and honey.

Grosset Springvale Watervale Riesling

Vintage 2010
RRP $36

TS: Picked at the perfect moment to capture a bouquet of lifted lemon and lime blossom and Pink Lady apples. The palate has poise, precision and persistence, albeit with more expression and richness at this age than the 2009. Won't be the longest-lived Watervale but shows the discipline we love from Grosset.

Pepper Tree Calcare Cabernet Sauvignon

Vintage 2008
RRP $35

TS: Plenty of flavour and power packed into this Coonawarra Cabernet, but it handles it with control and restraint. Themes are mint, plump blueberries and blackcurrants, spiced with black plum skin notes. Its juicy mid palate is textured with fine-grained tannins and integrated oak.

Ad Hoc Straw Man Margaret River Sauvignon Blanc Semillon

Vintage 2010
RRP $22

TS: One of the best SSBs to hit the shelves so far this vintage. Almost ripe passionfruit, guava and kiwifruit are the themes of this zesty, textural style. Sensational purity, mouth-caressing texture and precise line and length.

Mount Langi Ghiran Langi Cabernet Sauvignon

Vintage 2005
RRP $50

NS: Settled and resolved, this has flecks of leafy briary bush aromas amid liquorice, cassis and ripened blue fruits. The palate's laid out on smooth tannins with beautifully rounded shape, balanced and even, cassis and red/purple fruit flavours, finishing lithe and elegant.
